Jane Farrell passed away on April 20, 2011. She was a member of the Chelsea Painters and a wonderful art teacher and an inspiration to JCAA artists.

Jane has had an intense compassion for art that has spanned her whole life. It dates back to her first accomplishment at the age of 5, which was winning a coloring contest.

Jane has explored many media, including pencil drawing, photography, watercolor, monotypes, oil pastels and acrylics.

Jane's compassionate spirit comes through in her teaching style. She has taught a number of workshops in Toronto, Canada and has taught for many years at Ella Sharp Museum in Jackson, Michigan, as well as at the Chelsea Center for the Arts.

Jane has been a member of Chelsea Painters for 20 years, serving as a past president and secretary. She continues to be drawn to create pencil drawings and water-based oil monotypes.

She will be sadly missed.
