

Presents:

Aaron Bivins Workshop
“Acrylic – Keeping Things Simple”
Wednesday, November 30, 2011, 9-4
Members $80/Non-Members $110
Redeemer Lutheran Church
3637 Spring Arbor Rd.
Jackson, Michigan

Aaron Bivins, of Toledo, Ohio, will be demonstrating on Tuesday, November 15th at the general meeting held at 6:30 (demonstration begins approximately at 7:15) and then hosting an acrylic workshop, Wednesday, November 30th, 2011 from 9-4 at Redeemer Lutheran Church.

There is a 10 student minimum and 20 maximum.

*To look further at Aaron’s work please visit the American Frame Website ****

Detailed Workshop Materials List

Aaron will bring:

- Samples of acrylic paintings that are often mistaken for oil paintings.
- Birch Plywood Panels –choices of 16 x 20 & 11 x 14 at a nominal fee
- Aaron will show his palette layout &
- How to keep paints from drying out

Students should bring:

- Paints/pallet/brushes of their choice
- Easel of their choice (tables provided)
- Lunch
(Coffee/Tea & Breakfast Snacks will be available)

Registration form for

Aaron Bivins Workshop
“Acrylic – Keeping Things Simple”
Wednesday, November 30, 2011, 9-4
Held at Redeemer Lutheran Church
Members $80/Non-Members $110

Non-refundable Fee (payable to JCAA) and registration should be mailed to Julie Highlen, 15650 Behling Rd, Albion, MI 49224.
Questions call (Julie) 517-629-9826.

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Address: _____ E-Mail: _____

Amount Enclosed: _____